

To be sung from Lizzie
Graham's
Memoir

THE FAVORITE BALLAD

THE HOME OF MY CHILDHOOD

SUNG BY

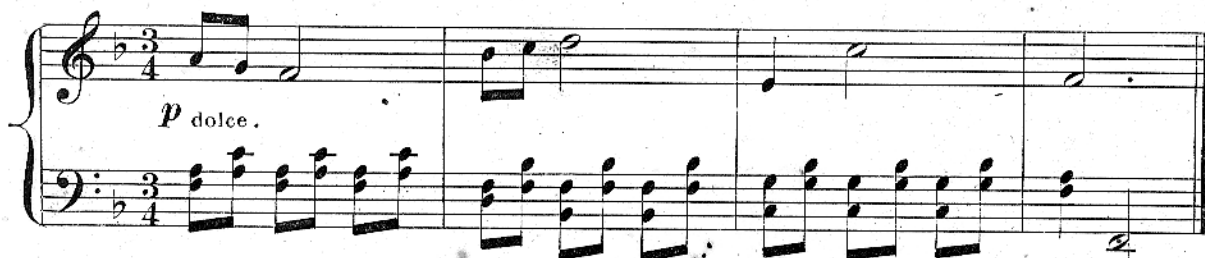

MISS COAD

Adapted by

T. COOKE.

St. Louis BALMER & WEBER 58 Fourth St.

Andantino.

There is peace on the mountains There is joy in the vales —

Oh! the home of my childhood Is graved on my heart,

No tear save the foun-tain's, No sigh, save the gale's:

From its streams — from its wildwood, How could I de-part?

Still in mem'-ry be - fore me, All those lov'd pla - ces lie,
 Here, each hour that creeps o'er me, Brings a tear or a sigh,

mf

To my home Ab re-store me Or let me let me die
 To that home; ah! re-store me, or let me let me die!

p

To my home, Ah! re-store me or let me let me die.
 To that home ah! re-store me, or let me let me die.

f dim. dim. f